

BNP Paribas: appointments at BNP Paribas UK

- Emmanuelle Bury is appointed BNP Paribas UK Country Head, replacing Anne Marie Verstraeten who becomes Vice Chairwoman of BNP Paribas UK.

Emmanuelle Bury, currently Chief Compliance Officer for BNP Paribas Americas, is appointed head of the London Branch and UK Country Head as of March 1st 2023. She will be a member of the BNP Paribas CIB Board. Emmanuelle Bury will succeed Anne Marie Verstraeten who will become Vice Chairwoman of BNP Paribas UK, reporting to Alain Papiasse, Chairman of BNP Paribas CIB and of BNP Paribas UK.

"I would like to warmly thank Anne Marie for her leadership, the team spirit she demonstrated, developing synergies across CIB, CPBS and IPS, and for helping us structuring the UK platform. I am delighted that Anne Marie will continue to support our ongoing development in the UK. I am very pleased to welcome Emmanuelle Bury as our new UK Country Head. Thanks to her broad experience across the BNP Paribas Group, in various businesses, functions and geographies, I am confident that Emmanuelle has all what it takes to further build out our UK activities and reinforce our set-up." said Yann Gérardin, Group Chief Operating Officer and Head of BNP Paribas CIB.

"Over the past 6 years, Anne Marie and her teams have made significant inroads in the UK market across our UK businesses and succeeded in elevating the brand of BNP Paribas, now the number one eurozone bank in the UK. I am very glad to have her with us as Vice Chairwoman of BNP Paribas UK to support our ongoing development in the UK. Emmanuelle comes to the UK with deep knowledge of the Group and of the requirements for international institutions. I am convinced that in her new role, Emmanuelle will build on our success and further develop the Group in the country at the service of our clients." said Alain Papiasse, Chairman of BNP Paribas CIB and of BNP Paribas UK.

The appointment of the head of the London Branch is subject to regulatory approval. Emmanuelle Bury's replacement will be announced at a later stage.
