

ANNE POINTET

Head of Company Engagement

Career

Anne Pointet began her career at the French Ministry of Defense as Head of the international law department and then at the Ministry of the Economy, Finance and Industry as Financial Counselor for the Middle East. She joined the BNP Paribas Group in 2007 to manage the subsidiaries of the Middle East countries and then the network of French overseas territories in 2009. Then in 2011, she started working for BNP Paribas Commercial & Personal Banking in France (BCEF) and took the helm of the Languedoc and PACA Business Centre. In 2013, she became Director of the retail network and Private Banking Centre for the 16th arrondissement of Paris. In 2015, Anne Pointet became Head of France's South-East region, comprising more than 200 branches and 2,600 staff. In 2020, Anne Pointet was appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer of BNP Paribas Wealth Management, in charge of Wealth Management activities for Domestic Markets and International Retail Banking. Since July 2024, Anne Pointet has been Head of Company Engagement and a member of BNP Paribas' Executive Committee.

Education

Anne Pointet has a degree in Economics. She is a graduate of Sciences Po Grenoble and an alumna of the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (2003).

BIOGRAPHY

BNP PARIBAS

The bank for a changing world