

PAULINE LECLERC-GLORIEUX

Director and Chief Executive Officer of BNP Paribas Cardif

Career

Pauline Leclerc-Glorieux began her career at the French Ministry of Finance and Industry. In 2002, she joined the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (French Financial Markets Authority), where she held various positions, including Deputy Secretary General, in charge of service providers, management and savings. In 2011, she joined the Finance Department of BNP Paribas Cardif as Director of development and performance management, then Director of Management Control. From 2014 to 2018, she headed the actuarial department of BNP Paribas Cardif. In January 2016, she joined the BNP Paribas Cardif Executive Committee. In 2019, she was appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer, responsible for Efficiency, Technology and Operations, where she defined and implemented the company's industrial strategy. In 2021, Pauline Leclerc-Glorieux was appointed Director and Chief Executive Officer of BNP Paribas Cardif. She is a member of the Executive Committee of BNP Paribas.

Education

Pauline Leclerc-Glorieux is an engineering graduate of the Ecole Polytechnique, and of the Paris Ecole des Mines and a member of the Institut des Actuaire Français.

BIOGRAPHY

BNP PARIBAS

The bank for a changing world