

Stéphanie Maarek

Head of Compliance

Career

Stéphanie Maarek joined the Group in 2006. She began her career within Global Markets and has held diverse positions involving trading and risk management within the business between New York, London and Paris. In December 2017, she was named Chief Conduct and Control Officer for Global Markets and CIB, in charge of the management of non-financial risks: conduct, operational and regulatory. On 1 January 2023, Stéphanie Maarek was appointed Global Head of Compliance and a member of the BNP Paribas Executive Committee.

Education

Stephanie Maarek is a graduate of the Ecole Polytechnique who then obtained a Master in Mathematics in Finance from New York University.

BIOGRAPHY

BNP PARIBAS

The bank for a changing world